

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Greetings	9
Introduction	13

I SOCIETY AND GARDES INVITE DIALOGUE

Klaus Töpfer		Ute Stoltenberg
Historic gardens and society	21	Historical gardens in the process
Jürgen Renn, Michael Rohde		of sustainable development	56
Gardens should engage in dialogue with society	23	Johanna Leissner
Jan Woudstra		The European Green Deal and the role
Society and Gardens		of cultural heritage for society	62
A Dynamic Relationship	38	Reinhard F. Hüttel, Bernd Uwe Schneider
Michael Bongardt		Societal appreciation of historic gardens
With Jonas in the park		and cultural landscapes as physiographic
On the kinship between future ethics		spaces and places of scientific research	65
and garden art	49	Eske Nannen	74

II GARDENS IN CULTURAL HISTORY

Felix Arnold		Hans-Joachim v. Buchka
A garden in the desert		Familienstiftung Hofgärtner Hermann Sello
Pharaonic landscape architecture	81	The preservation of a cultural heritage
Defne Akşın Akyol		as a generational undertaking	115
History of Garden Culture in Turkey	88	Hubertus Fischer
Andreas Pečar		How do green spaces and gardens benefit society?
Palace gardens as an expression of the		Answers from the past to questions of the present -	120
notional culture of princely rule	99	Joachim Liebig
Christian Hlavac		Concerning the connection between religion and
Before WhatsApp, Facebook and Wikipedia		gardens	125
Networking and knowledge acquisition		Helmut Glück, Gerhard Meiser
in the 19 th century	106	What languages reveal about gardens	130
		Christopher Lehmpfuhl	136

III PRESERVATION OF GARDENS AS CULTURAL HERITAGE

Birgitta Ringbeck

Historical garden and park landscapes and the appreciation of the “green heritage” from the perspective of the World Heritage Convention 143

Michael Kummer

Historic garden conservation in a thicket of paradoxes 146

Paul Bellendorf

Everything is transitory
On dealing with the decay of cultural heritage 153

Willem Zieleman

Het Loo
The estate’s identity through the centuries 156

Nuno Oliveira, Denise Pereira

On the turn of a paradigm
Managing the parks and gardens of Sintra (Portugal) 167

Johannes Stoffler

Striking a balance between densification and preservation
Willi Neukom’s gardens at ETH Zurich’s
Hönggerberg campus 172

Jens Hendeliowitz

Cultural History, Use and Professional Care exemplified by two Historical Gardens in Denmark 181

Doris Törkel, Ursula Kellner

Administration alone is not enough
The Rheinpark in Düsseldorf as an example of municipal garden monument preservation 190

Bernd Rubelt, Antje Graumann, Lars Schmäh,
Steffen Tervooren, Torsten von Einem

The role of historic gardens in the context of urban development by Potsdam municipal authorities 197

Dietger Hagner

Ingredients for the sustainable conservation of garden heritage, exemplified by the special use of trees and shrubs on Katzenkopfwiese at Altenstein Palace Park 201

Sascha E. Oswald, Philip Bubeck, Annegret H. Thieken

Historical gardens with new roles
Varied functions for urban conurbations require a reassessment of historical gardens in the climate change century 210

Jürgen Kern, Martin Geyer

Scientific research and historic gardens 215

Holger Schulz

Maintenance in the Gardening Profession – a new old supreme discipline? 220

Oliver Westerbarkey 224

IV EFFECTS OF GARDES ON SOCIETY

Falk Schmidt

Sustainability and responsibility

The (historic) garden, singular and planetary 229

Manfred Spitzer

Nature transformed into culture

The effects that gardens have on people 232

Jesko Hirschfeld

The societal value of historical gardens and parks

An expanded economic perspective 238

Cornelia Müller

Landscape is Everywhere 245

Jochen Sandner, Sibylle Eßer

From Garden Show to Public Park

Certification preserves Values 252

Matthias Groß, Maria Pfeiffer

The Surprise of Gardening

Joy and Disappointment through the Virtue of Not Knowing 257

Arno Brandt

The socio-political significance and value of gardens and parks 260

Rita Hombach

Interaction and symbiosis between gardens and music 265

Sven Hannemann

The value of Historic Gardens to society 274

Franziska Klotz 280

V PERCEPTIONS OF GARDENS IN SOCIETY

Susanne Dohrn

A long-established garden as a cultural landscape

Tracing the past in the undergrowth 284

Edgar Lotz

Gardens and medicine 290

Gerlinde Beining

Consistency in times of crisis 293

Miriam Janssen

Historic gardens

Spaces of continuity and contemplation 295

Heike Rohde-Siebel

Historic gardens

Designed nature as a musical experience 296

Martin Faass

Observations from the Liebermann Garden 298

Juliet E. Oldenburger

The garden as a mirror in the world 302

Andreas Knapp

Gardens and orchestral music

World cultural heritage as a future opportunity for social interaction 308

Franziska Lutz

The potential of school gardens based on the example of the educational programme

GemüseAckerdemie 315

Hubertus Hamm 320

VI COMMUNICATING RESPONSIBILITY FOR GARDEN CULTURE

Annegreth Dietze-Schirdewahn

Archives and their contribution to a more conscious approach to the history of the profession	325
--	-----

Oliver Günther, Iwan-Michelangelo D'Aprile

Garden history, landscape conservation and environmental humanities at the Research Center Sanssouci (RECS) in Potsdam	330
---	-----

Brigitte Mang

Educational diversity in historic gardens and parks	335
--	-----

Roland Zieschank

The Future of Historical Gardens Sustainability as a Bridge?	342
---	-----

Birgit Mandel

Historic gardens and parks as a resource for modern-day cultural identity and cultural education	353
---	-----

Barbara Welzel, Christopher Kreutchen

GartenSPÄHER – new choreographies for sharing heritage and garden education	356
--	-----

Inken Formann

“Cultural environmental education” An appeal for historic gardens to be used as places of learning for children and young people	363
---	-----

Sylvia Butenschön

The world in a garden Aspects of world culture conveyed through historic gardens	372
---	-----

Daniel Roehr

SENSE...ible Parks and Gardens	381
---	-----

Bettina Gräfin Bernadotte, Tobias Mayer

Mainau Island Botanical Palace Park with an Educational mission	390
--	-----

Dirk Häusser, Andreas Kramp

A garden for everyone needs everyone for a garden	397
--	-----

Hermann Rogger

School and society Art, giftedness and responsibility based on the example of Pustertal School Association (South Tyrol)	401
---	-----

Thomas Hammer

Pixels in the park Film and photographic projects at Medienschule Babelsberg	406
---	-----

Katharina Matheja, Manja Krausche

PLANTING THE FUTURE New greenery for the World Heritage	410
--	-----

List of authors	416
------------------------------	-----

Bibliography	419
---------------------------	-----