

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Greetings ..... 9

Introduction ..... 13

I SOCIETY AND GARDES INVITE DIALOGUE

Klaus Töpfer
Historic gardens and society ..... 21

Jürgen Renn, Michael Rohde
Gardens should engage in dialogue with society ..... 23

Jan Woudstra
Society and Gardens
A Dynamic Relationship ..... 38

Michael Bongardt
With Jonas in the park
On the kinship between future ethics and garden art ..... 49

Ute Stoltenberg
Historical gardens in the process of sustainable development ..... 56

Johanna Leissner
The European Green Deal and the role of cultural heritage for society ..... 62

Reinhard F. Hüttl, Bernd Uwe Schneider
Societal appreciation of historic gardens and cultural landscapes as physiographic spaces and places of scientific research ..... 65

Eske Nannen ..... 74

II GARDENS IN CULTURAL HISTORY

Felix Arnold
A garden in the desert
Pharaonic landscape architecture ..... 81

Defne Akşyn Akyol
History of Garden Culture in Turkey ..... 88

Andreas Pečar
Palace gardens as an expression of the notional culture of princely rule ..... 99

Christian Hlavac
Before WhatsApp, Facebook and Wikipedia
Networking and knowledge acquisition in the 19th century ..... 106

Hans-Joachim v. Buchka
Familienstiftung Hofgärtner Hermann Sello
The preservation of a cultural heritage as a generational undertaking ..... 115

Hubertus Fischer
How do green spaces and gardens benefit society?
Answers from the past to questions of the present - 120

Joachim Liebig
Concerning the connection between religion and gardens ..... 125

Helmut Glück, Gerhard Meiser
What languages reveal about gardens ..... 130

Christopher Lehmpfuhl ..... 136

III PRESERVATION OF GARDENS AS CULTURAL HERITAGE

Birgitta Ringbeck
Historical garden and park landscapes and the appreciation of the “green heritage” from the perspective of the World Heritage Convention .....	143
Michael Kummer
Historic garden conservation in a thicket of paradoxes .....	146
Paul Bellendorf
Everything is transitory On dealing with the decay of cultural heritage .....	153
Willem Zieleman
Het Loo The estate’s identity through the centuries .....	156
Nuno Oliveira, Denise Pereira
On the turn of a paradigm Managing the parks and gardens of Sintra (Portugal) .....	167
Johannes Stoffler
Striking a balance between densification and preservation Willi Neukom’s gardens at ETH Zurich’s Hönggerberg campus .....	172
Jens Hendeliowitz
Cultural History, Use and Professional Care exemplified by two Historical Gardens in Denmark .....	181
Doris Törkel, Ursula Kellner
Administration alone is not enough The Rheinpark in Düsseldorf as an example of municipal garden monument preservation .....	190
Bernd Rubelt, Antje Graumann, Lars Schmäh, Steffen Tervooren, Torsten von Einem
The role of historic gardens in the context of urban development by Potsdam municipal authorities .....	197
Dietger Hagner
Ingredients for the sustainable conservation of garden heritage, exemplified by the special use of trees and shrubs on Katzenkopfwiese at Altenstein Palace Park .....	201
Sascha E. Oswald, Philip Bubeck, Annegret H. Thieken
Historical gardens with new roles Varied functions for urban conurbations require a reassessment of historical gardens in the climate change century .....	210
Jürgen Kern, Martin Geyer
Scientific research and historic gardens .....	215
Holger Schulz
Maintenance in the Gardening Profession – a new old supreme discipline? .....	220
Oliver Westerbarkey .....	224

IV EFFECTS OF GARDES ON SOCIETY

Falk Schmidt

Sustainability and responsibility

The (historic) garden, singular and planetary ..... 229

Manfred Spitzer

Nature transformed into culture

The effects that gardens have on people ..... 232

Jesko Hirschfeld

The societal value of historical gardens and parks

An expanded economic perspective ..... 238

Cornelia Müller

Landscape is Everywhere ..... 245

Jochen Sandner, Sibylle Eßer

From Garden Show to Public Park

Certification preserves Values ..... 252

Matthias Groß, Maria Pfeiffer

The Surprise of Gardening

Joy and Disappointment through the Virtue of Not Knowing ..... 257

Arno Brandt

The socio-political significance and value of gardens and parks

..... 260

Rita Hombach

Interaction and symbiosis between gardens and music

..... 265

Sven Hannemann

The value of Historic Gardens to society ..... 274

Franziska Klotz ..... 280

V PERCEPTIONS OF GARDENS IN SOCIETY

Susanne Dohrn

A long-established garden as a cultural landscape

Tracing the past in the undergrowth ..... 284

Edgar Lotz

Gardens and medicine ..... 290

Gerlinde Beining

Consistency in times of crisis ..... 293

Miriam Janssen

Historic gardens

Spaces of continuity and contemplation ..... 295

Heike Rohde-Siebel

Historic gardens

Designed nature as a musical experience ..... 296

Martin Faass

Observations from the Liebermann Garden ..... 298

Juliet E. Oldenburger

The garden as a mirror in the world ..... 302

Andreas Knapp

Gardens and orchestral music

World cultural heritage as a future opportunity for social interaction ..... 308

Franziska Lutz

The potential of school gardens based on the example of the educational programme

GemüseAckerdemie ..... 315

Hubertus Hamm ..... 320

VI COMMUNICATING RESPONSIBILITY FOR GARDEN CULTURE

Annegreth Dietze-Schirdewahn Archives and their contribution to a more conscious approach to the history of the profession .....	325
Oliver Günther, Iwan-Michelangelo D'Aprile Garden history, landscape conservation and environmental humanities at the Research Center Sanssouci (RECS) in Potsdam .....	330
Brigitte Mang Educational diversity in historic gardens and parks .....	335
Roland Zieschank The Future of Historical Gardens Sustainability as a Bridge? .....	342
Birgit Mandel Historic gardens and parks as a resource for modern-day cultural identity and cultural education .....	353
Barbara Welzel, Christopher Kreutchen GartenSPÄHER – new choreographies for sharing heritage and garden education .....	356
Inken Formann “Cultural environmental education” An appeal for historic gardens to be used as places of learning for children and young people .....	363
Sylvia Butenschön The world in a garden Aspects of world culture conveyed through historic gardens .....	372
Daniel Roehr SENSE...ible Parks and Gardens .....	381
Bettina Gräfin Bernadotte, Tobias Mayer Mainau Island Botanical Palace Park with an Educational mission .....	390
Dirk Häusser, Andreas Kramp A garden for everyone needs everyone for a garden .....	397
Hermann Rogger School and society Art, giftedness and responsibility based on the example of Pustertal School Association (South Tyrol) .....	401
Thomas Hammer Pixels in the park Film and photographic projects at Medienschule Babelsberg .....	406
Katharina Matheja, Manja Krausche PLANTING THE FUTURE New greenery for the World Heritage .....	410
List of authors .....	416
Bibliography .....	419