

Contents

A SHORT APPRECIATION	3
A BRIEF INTRODUCTION TO THE CASTLE'S HISTORY	4
The Foundation of the Castle by the Lords of Wangen	4
The Castle under the Vintlers	6
Emperor Maximilian I and the Runkelstein Castle	10
NOTES ON THE BUILDING HISTORY	13
A TOUR OF THE CASTLE	23
Routes to Runkelstein	23
The Defence Structure	23
The Exterior and the Courtyard	24
The Western Building: Rooms and Murals	32
The Summer House: Rooms and Murals	43
The Eastern Building: Rooms and Murals	49
SUMMARY	52
BIBLIOGRAPHY	55

Bolzano in the Etsch Valley, view of the town, Runkelstein Castle on the slope of the entrance to the Sarn Valley, and Rafenstein Castle, lithograph, c. 1830/40 (Nuremberg, Germanisches Nationalmuseum)

Acknowledgements

Special thanks are extended to Burgi Volgger, president of the Castles of Bolzano Foundation, and in particular to former town councillor Prof. Dr. Helmut Rizzolli for his longstanding assistance with research on the castle and his support for the activities of the Wartburg-Gesellschaft. We also wish to thank the staff of Runkelstein Castle, particularly Florian Hofer, for their assistance with research. Finally, we are grateful to the Germanisches Nationalmuseum for providing materials, especially from its library.